Company Profile

Throughout the Pacific Southwest including the states of California, Arizona, Nevada, and Hawaii, we represent an array of manufacturers with quality building and home improvement products. As a traditional independent sales agency, our sales efforts are focused on both the retail and wholesale market segments. We call upon housewares, hardware and home improvement retail dealers and distributors; building materials dealers and distributors; paint chains and distributors; food and drug chains; RV, marine and sporting goods chains; industrial supply and STAFDA distributors and plumbing wholesalers.

Our headquarters office is located in Corona (Southern), California and we maintain branch offices in Alamo (Northern), California, Chandler, Arizona, and Honolulu, Hawaii. We have eight outside salesmen backed by competent and courteous inside sales and customer support personnel. With our teamwork, sales and marketing experience and expertise, we can help you meet the sales and distribution goals for your products. Click the Manufacturer's Representation button above to visit our web page describing what we can offer you.

We also act in the capacity of "National Sales Facilitators" for a number of companies. We help launch products and programs for smaller companies lacking an understanding of the retail trade and for larger industrial-oriented companies seeking an entry to the retail market. We maintain a national sales force of 17 agencies travelling nearly 100 salesmen. We have successfully placed new products and programs at such prestigious accounts as Home Depot, Ace Hardware, True Value Hardware and Do-It-Best Home Centers. Not to be confused with a "Master Rep," our sales agencies have direct contact and contractual relationships with you, the manufacturer. Our services are described on our Facilitation web page.
